

10th - 25th Aug.

Phew what a scorch! We had forgotten what the Sun was like.

Our children loved the freedom of the open spaces, swimming in the river, catching fish (4lb Barbel) and walking in the caves. We spotted several snakes, which really makes you jump!

Great place,

All the best Phil, Sarah,

July 2012.

Thank you so much for a wonderful break!

Peace & quiet, what more could we ask for?!

Good luck with your ventures!

Best wishes

What a lovely relaxing place!
You are both very brave and deserve
Success. Thank you for being so kind Mel, it was much appreciated.

July 14th - 28th, 2012

We had two great weeks at "Le Sechoir".
We enjoyed the calm area as well as the beautiful house. Our favorite visit was to Laxaux II, fascinating even if it is only a copy of the original cave. You have to be there early, otherwise tickets may be sold out for the day, at least in July.

Trips to Rocamadour, Sarlat or canoe trip
on the Dordogne from Verignac to Beynac are well recommended.

All the best, Anja + Peter from Frankfurt

May 9 - 26 / 2012

We have enjoyed our 2 weeks here at the Sechoir.

Thank-you Mel & Mark for sharing your peaceful getaway.
We loved walking & running on the trails and country roads, around here.

Our day trips took us to the chateaux, markets and gardens, and paddling down the river.

The walnut mill was interesting to see, after enjoying walnut oil, cake,
and Sapératif.

Thanks again,

29th October 2011

We have had a lovely
week weather been kind.
The barn is a peaceful and comfortable retreat
in our favorite area of France

You should try the walnuts fab.
